

Rich Feuer Anderson Names New Partners

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 10, 2023 -- Rich Feuer Anderson, LLC (“RFA”), announced that Tom Koonce and Jared Sawyer have become partners at the firm. Tom has been with RFA since 2017, while Jared joined the firm in 2018.

Jared came to RFA from the Department of Treasury, where he served as Deputy Assistant Secretary for Financial Institutions. Prior to Treasury, Jared served in senior policy roles for top Republicans on the Senate Banking and House Financial Services Committees. Jared was recognized by The Hill as a Top Lobbyist for 2022 and is regarded as an expert on financial services policy issues related to prudential banking, consumer financial protection, insurance, cybersecurity and fintech, among other issues.

Tom came to RFA after working in government relations at JPMorgan Chase as well as two of DC’s most influential trade associations. He previously served in positions on Capitol Hill with Democratic US House Members from North Carolina. Tom has over 17 years’ experience in federal government affairs and is a respected and trusted Democratic lobbyist with extensive connections throughout the political and government affairs community.

“Jared and Tom are recognized as influential and respected lobbyists and I’m thrilled to welcome them as partners to lead our growing team,” said John Anderson. “Their results-oriented approach to government affairs stands out and is a tremendous value to the firm and our clients. I’m excited to celebrate Jared and Tom’s promotion and look forward to the future.”

About RFA

RFA is a leading advocacy and advisory firm in Washington, D.C. tackling complex and challenging issues impacting companies and trade associations. RFA is recognized by Bloomberg Government as a “Top-Performing Lobbying Firm.” Since 2003, the firm has aided clients in securing major policy victories and managing economic and reputational crises. RFA specializes in helping clients in the financial services, tax and energy industries.

Learn more at rfadc.com